Student Bar Association (SBA)*
tlc_sba@listserv.touro.edu

SBA is the Law Center’s student government and the umbrella organization for all other student organizations. It is governed by a six-member executive board and representatives from each class in both the full-time and part-time divisions. The SBA fosters relationships among students, faculty and administration; represents the student body at faculty meetings and on committees; conducts programs and funds student organizations. *All students are members of the SBA.

Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Society
tlc_adrsociety@listserv.touro.edu

The purpose of the group is to raise student awareness of the growing use of alternative dispute resolution (ADR) methods and to create opportunities for students to obtain training and experience in ADR practices and techniques.

American Bar Association/Law Students Division (ABA/LSD)
tlc_abalsd@listserv.touro.edu

ABA/LSD is the on-campus chapter of the American Bar Association. Members participate in national competitions in negotiation, client counseling and appellate advocacy, and represent the school at regional and national meetings.

Animal Legal Defense Fund (ALDF), Student Chapter
tlc_animallaw@listserv.touro.edu

The ALDF will provide a central forum for students to discuss animal law issues, including, but not limited to, animal cruelty, crimes against animals, agriculture and farming laws, animal testing for medical purposes and cosmetic purposes, and wildlife laws.

Black Law Students Association
tlc_blsa@listserv.touro.edu

BLSA is part of the National Black Law Students Association. The goal of the organization is to foster camaraderie and excellence among Black and minority law students. Notwithstanding other events, the Law Center chapter sponsors many activities that encourage professional competence, and instill a strong sense of belonging and commitment to the Black community.

Business Law Society (BLS)
tlc_businesslaw@listserv.touro.edu

BLS aims to provide advancement in the interests and education of students inside and outside of the Business Law concentration through networking and speaking events, curricular development, and other educational opportunities.

Catholic Law Society
tlc_catholic@listserv.touro.edu

The Catholic Law Society aims to help members integrate their Catholic faith into their profession as lawyers through prayer, study, conversation, and fellowship. The goal is for students to achieve successful legal careers with peace and a healthy work/life balance.

Criminal Law Society (CLS)
tlc_crimsociet@listserv.touro.edu

CLS is made up of members who share a passion and interest in criminal law and criminal justice themes. CLS provides its members with educational forums where both prosecution and defense points of view are represented.

Cyber Law Society
tlc_cyberlaw@listserv.touro.edu

The group sponsors programs designed to provide members and students access to attorneys and specialists in the emerging field of Cyber Law including, but not limited to, privacy, data and consumer protection, artificial intelligence, cybersecurity, technology, regulatory compliance, and more.

Elder Law, Trusts and Estates Law Students Association
tlc_elderlaw@listserv.touro.edu

The goal of the group is to sponsor programs and symposiums designed to give students in attendance access to noted attorneys and individuals associated with the practice in these fields. The association will sponsor practitioners’ panels on various issues as well as invite distinguished individual speakers to offer their commentary on issues of interest to the society membership, and the law center community.

Employment and Labor Law Society (ELLS)
tlc_ells@listserv.touro.edu

The goal of ELLS is to provide advancement in the interests and education of students inside and outside of the employment and labor law concentration through networking and speaking events, curricular development, and other educational opportunities.

Family Law Society (FLS)
tlc_familylawsociety@listserv.touro.edu

The goal of FLS is to develop a network with domestic violence agencies and child protection services to facilitate clothing and food drives for victims. FLS develops networking opportunities for students to participate in internships with local family law firms, and arranges visits to the Supreme and Family Courts to witness first-hand matrimonial/family law trials.

Health Law Projects (HeLP)
tlc_healthlawprojects@listserv.touro.edu

HeLP provides information, both substantive and vocational, to students interested in health and disability law, and involves students in various community outreach efforts. The group sponsors programs and symposiums designed to provide members and students in attendance access to attorneys and noted practitioners in the various fields of health (medical) and disability law.

Immigration Law Society
tlc_immigrationlaw@listserv.touro.edu

The goal of this group is to promote legal awareness and education in the area of immigration and naturalization law, and to foster interest in a career in immigration law.

Intellectual Property Law Society
tlc_ipls@listserv.touro.edu

The Intellectual Property Law Society is dedicated to providing programs and symposiums designed to give students access to noted attorneys and individuals associated with the practice in this field. The group sponsors practitioner panels on various issues as well as invite distinguished individual speakers to offer their commentary on issues of interest to the society membership, and the law center community.

International Law to the student body through events, lectures and any other activities. The group aims to further student interest of international law and the study of it at the Law Center.

Int’l Law Students Association
tlc_internationallaw@listserv.touro.edu

The purpose of the organization is to introduce International Law to the student body through events, lectures and any other activities. The group aims to further student interest of international law and the study of it at the Law Center.

The Fashion Law Society
tlc_fashionlaw@listserv.touro.edu

The goal of the group is to educate students about new trends in fashion law, host seminars and events with notable speakers in the field, and provide networking opportunities with prospective employers.

Federal Bar Association - Touro Law Student Division
tlc_fedbarassoc@listserv.touro.edu

The organization sponsors programs and symposiums designed to give students access to judges, law clerks, and attorneys practicing in federal courts. They sponsor practitioner panels, invite distinguished speakers, and participate in events offered by the Federal Bar Association.

Federalist Society
tlc_federalistsociety@listserv.touro.edu

The Federalist Society is a national organization of lawyers and law students dedicated to conservative and libertarian issues and causes. The Law Center chapter conducts programs and sponsors appearances by distinguished professors and jurists from around the country.

Health Law Projects (HeLP)
tlc_healthlawprojects@listserv.touro.edu

HeLP provides information, both substantive and vocational, to students interested in health and disability law, and involves students in various community outreach efforts. The group sponsors programs and symposiums designed to provide members and students in attendance access to attorneys and noted practitioners in the various fields of health (medical) and disability law.

Immigration Law Society
tlc_immigrationlaw@listserv.touro.edu

The goal of this group is to promote legal awareness and education in the area of immigration and naturalization law, and to foster interest in a career in immigration law.

Intellectual Property Law Society
tlc_ipls@listserv.touro.edu

The Intellectual Property Law Society is dedicated to providing programs and symposiums designed to give students access to noted attorneys and individuals associated with the practice in this field. The group sponsors practitioner panels on various issues as well as invite distinguished individual speakers to offer their commentary on issues of interest to the society membership, and the law center community.

International Law Students Association
tlc_internationallaw@listserv.touro.edu

The purpose of the organization is to introduce International Law to the student body through events, lectures and any other activities. The group aims to further student interest of international law and the study of it at the Law Center.

The Fashion Law Society
tlc_fashionlaw@listserv.touro.edu

The goal of the group is to educate students about new trends in fashion law, host seminars and events with notable speakers in the field, and provide networking opportunities with prospective employers.

Federal Bar Association - Touro Law Student Division
tlc_fedbarassoc@listserv.touro.edu

The organization sponsors programs and symposiums designed to give students access to judges, law clerks, and attorneys practicing in federal courts. They sponsor practitioner panels, invite distinguished speakers, and participate in events offered by the Federal Bar Association.

Federalist Society
tlc_federalistsociety@listserv.touro.edu

The Federalist Society is a national organization of lawyers and law students dedicated to conservative and libertarian issues and causes. The Law Center chapter conducts programs and sponsors appearances by distinguished professors and jurists from around the country.

Health Law Projects (HeLP)
tlc_healthlawprojects@listserv.touro.edu

HeLP provides information, both substantive and vocational, to students interested in health and disability law, and involves students in various community outreach efforts. The group sponsors programs and symposiums designed to provide members and students in attendance access to attorneys and noted practitioners in the various fields of health (medical) and disability law.

Immigration Law Society
tlc_immigrationlaw@listserv.touro.edu

The goal of this group is to promote legal awareness and education in the area of immigration and naturalization law, and to foster interest in a career in immigration law.

Intellectual Property Law Society
tlc_ipls@listserv.touro.edu

The Intellectual Property Law Society is dedicated to providing programs and symposiums designed to give students access to noted attorneys and individuals associated with the practice in this field. The group sponsors practitioner panels on various issues as well as invite distinguished individual speakers to offer their commentary on issues of interest to the society membership, and the law center community.

International Law Students Association
tlc_internationallaw@listserv.touro.edu

The purpose of the organization is to introduce International Law to the student body through events, lectures and any other activities. The group aims to further student interest of international law and the study of it at the Law Center.

The Fashion Law Society
tlc_fashionlaw@listserv.touro.edu

The goal of the group is to educate students about new trends in fashion law, host seminars and events with notable speakers in the field, and provide networking opportunities with prospective employers.

Federal Bar Association - Touro Law Student Division
tlc_fedbarassoc@listserv.touro.edu

The organization sponsors programs and symposiums designed to give students access to judges, law clerks, and attorneys practicing in federal courts. They sponsor practitioner panels, invite distinguished speakers, and participate in events offered by the Federal Bar Association.

Federalist Society
tlc_federalistsociety@listserv.touro.edu

The Federalist Society is a national organization of lawyers and law students dedicated to conservative and libertarian issues and causes. The Law Center chapter conducts programs and sponsors appearances by distinguished professors and jurists from around the country.

Health Law Projects (HeLP)
tlc_healthlawprojects@listserv.touro.edu

HeLP provides information, both substantive and vocational, to students interested in health and disability law, and involves students in various community outreach efforts. The group sponsors programs and symposiums designed to provide members and students in attendance access to attorneys and noted practitioners in the various fields of health (medical) and disability law.

Immigration Law Society
tlc_immigrationlaw@listserv.touro.edu

The goal of this group is to promote legal awareness and education in the area of immigration and naturalization law, and to foster interest in a career in immigration law.

Intellectual Property Law Society
tlc_ipls@listserv.touro.edu

The Intellectual Property Law Society is dedicated to providing programs and symposiums designed to give students access to noted attorneys and individuals associated with the practice in this field. The group sponsors practitioner panels on various issues as well as invite distinguished individual speakers to offer their commentary on issues of interest to the society membership, and the law center community.

International Law Students Association
tlc_internationallaw@listserv.touro.edu

The purpose of the organization is to introduce International Law to the student body through events, lectures and any other activities. The group aims to further student interest of international law and the study of it at the Law Center.

The Fashion Law Society
tlc_fashionlaw@listserv.touro.edu

The goal of the group is to educate students about new trends in fashion law, host seminars and events with notable speakers in the field, and provide networking opportunities with prospective employers.
The group aims to help spread awareness of mental health problems. All conversations are confidential. Their mission is two-part: first, to serve as a source of comfort, guidance, and referral for fellow students no matter what their concerns or issues might be; and second, to compassionately and competently assist their peers who are at risk or in the throes of mental health problems. All conversations are confidential.

Italian American Student Bar Association (IASBA)

tlc_iasba@listserv.touro.edu

IASBA provides a forum for discussion of both professional and social issues in law and politics that affect Italian-Americans. The group also celebrates the contributions of Italians to American law and culture.

Jewish Law Students Association (JLSA)

tlc_jlsa@listserv.touro.edu

JLSA is the on-campus chapter of the National Jewish Law Students Network. The group’s focus is on Israeli and Jewish law and on Jewish cultural activities. Membership is open to all students, regardless of religious affiliation.

Lambda Law Students Association (LGBTQ and Allies)

tlc_lamba@listserv.touro.edu

Lambda seeks to create and foster an environment that raises awareness for the legal and social issues of the LGBT community. Lambda educates both the students and greater Touro Law Center community on these issues through a wide spectrum of events that includes panel discussions, guest speakers, and hot topic debates and discussions. The group also sponsors events and workshops for academic development.

Latino American Law Students Association (LALSA)

tlc_lalsa@listserv.touro.edu

LALSA focuses primarily on the interests of the Law Center’s Latino/Latina community through educational and social programs. Members also participate actively in regional and national Hispanic bar associations.

Mental Health Law Society

tlc_mentalhealth@listserv.touro.edu

The group aims to help spread awareness of mental health issues that arise when someone has run ins with the law. Mental health law goes further than insanity defenses, and often incorporates third parties and their involvement in another’s legal journey.

Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity International (PAD)

tlc_pad@listserv.touro.edu

PAD sponsors professional and social activities for students, faculty and administration, with an emphasis on academic excellence and professional responsibility.

Public Interest Law Organization of Touro (PILOT)

tlc_pilot@listserv.touro.edu

PILOT is dedicated to student awareness of and involvement in public interest law and serving persons or groups with limited access to justice and the judicial system. The group sponsors programs on careers in public interest law and raises funds to supplement those provided by the school for Public Interest Law Fellowships.

Suffolk County Bar Association (SCBA), Student Committee

tlc_scba-sc@listserv.touro.edu

The SCBA Student Committee is a student chapter of the Suffolk County Bar Association, a private organization representing lawyers of Suffolk County. They are dedicated to offering networking and professional development opportunities for Touro Law students.

Tort Law Society

tlc_tortlawsociety@listserv.touro.edu

The Tort Law Society was formed with the goals of providing information, substantive and vocational, to students interested in the law as it relates to tortious conduct. The group sponsors programs and symposiums designed to give students the ability to meet and interact with noted attorneys in the tort law area.

Unemployment Action Center, Touro Chapter (UAC)

tlc_uac@listserv.touro.edu

UAC provides representation for unemployment insurance claims throughout New York City and Long Island. The Chapter coordinates the training of advocates, carried out in accordance with the guidelines established by the UAC Board of Directors, to ensure the competence of the representation provided by the Chapter.

Veterans Law Student Organization (VLSO)

tlc_veteranstudentorg@listserv.touro.edu

VLSO helps Touro Law students affected by veteran issues establish a community of support, increase understanding of veteran issues, encourage participation in pro bono projects that address veteran issues, and work with the Veterans’ and Servicemembers’ Rights Clinic and the Alumni Veterans Advisory Council. Students who are veterans, have family members who are veterans, or are interested in veterans law and veteran issues are welcome to join.

Women’s Bar Association (WBA)

tlc_wba@listserv.touro.edu

WBA is an active voice at the Law Center on gender-related legal issues. They sponsor frequent programs on subjects such as women in the courts, sexual harassment, workplace issues, and breast cancer and reproductive rights. WBA also offers social and networking opportunities with students, alumni and local practitioners.

Touro Tax Law Society

tlc_tls@listserv.touro.edu

The goal of the Touro TLS is to provide its members and the student body with an opportunity to hear educational and interactive presentations about taxation, the economy and current events within the tax professional world, as well as to learn from and network with various tax law practitioners and guest speakers.