 PATRICIA SALKIN NAMED NEW DEAN **

Patricia E. Salkin has been appointed the new dean of Touro College Jacob D. Fuchsberg Law Center. Dean Salkin is a nationally known scholar and expert in land use planning and government ethics. She is currently the Associate Dean and Director of the Government Law Center of Albany Law School, where she is also the Raymond & Ella Smith Distinguished Professor of Law.

“When searching for a new leader for Touro Law Center, we sought a dynamic individual with professional distinction who demonstrated potential for achieving and maintaining excellence and innovation in teaching, research, scholarship and service in the public interest,” said Touro College President & CEO Dr. Kadish. “I am confident that we found such a candidate in Patricia Salkin. I look forward to working with her as she leads the Touro Law Center into the future.”

Dean Salkin was selected after a national search to replace current Dean Lawrence Rafal, who announced last July that he would be stepping down to join the faculty full time after serving as dean for eight years. Salkin will become the fifth dean of Touro Law, and the first female dean in the school’s history. She will begin her tenure on August 1.

Dean Salkin received her B.A., University at Albany and her J.D. from Albany Law School. She is the author of numerous casebooks, treatises, books and more than 100 articles, columns, studies and reports on topics including municipal law, government ethics, sustainable development law, climate change, affordable housing, and aging law. For a sample, see http://ssrn.com/author=83276. She has served on the Transition Teams for Attorneys General Eric Schneiderman, Andrew Cuomo and Eliot Spitzer, as a consultant to state agencies and local governments across New York on zoning law reform and planning issues; and in leadership positions in local, state and national bar associations. She is also the author of Law of the Land, a popular blog on land use law. http://lawoftheland.wordpress.com.

Extended Bar Exam Hours

During the two weeks prior to the New York Bar Exam, Sunday, July 8–Tuesday, July 24, the Library will be open as a 24-hour study hall, except for Friday evening—Saturday 10:00 a.m., in observance of the Jewish Sabbath. During these 2 weeks, the library will close on Fridays at 7:00 p.m. and will reopen on Saturdays at 10:00 a.m. With this exception, the library will remain open 24 hours a day. Students using the library after midnight must sign in and out at the security desk. Library services will not be available during the overnight period, although a security guard will be on duty.

Library calendar updates are available at http://www.tourolaw.edu/library/.

FREE PREP COURSE FOR AUGUST MPRE

The Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination (MPRE) is a 2 hour and 5 minute 60-question multiple choice test designed to measure knowledge of standards related to a lawyer's professional conduct. A passing grade is required for admission in virtually every US jurisdiction. The next MPRE is Friday, August 10, 2012. Applications, available at http://www.ncbex.org, must be received by Tuesday, June 26 (late registrations accepted until Thursday, July 12, at double the normal $70 fee). Professor Theodore Silver, a nationally known standardized test preparation author and tutor, will offer a free MPRE course on Sunday, August 5, 10:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m. in Room 210. The course, including all materials, is free, but reservations are required. administration@tourolaw.edu.

CSO NEWS & NOTES

Class of 2012. Sign up for the “Apply-For-Me” Program and have CSO apply for jobs for you while you study for the Bar. Stop by CSO, fill out the registration form, and get your “Good Luck on the Bar Exam” goodie bag.

Your Check is on the Mail. Students should check their Touro e-mail accounts all summer long. CSO will be sending information about time-sensitive deadlines for on-campus recruiting, clerkship applications, and free Touro-sponsored summer programs and October’s 3-day Boot Camp at the New York City Bar Association. CSO is open all summer and ready to assist you by phone, e-mail or in person.

Summer Jobs. Job listings continue to come in as employers realize they have enough work to hire summer interns and clerks. If you are still looking for summer employment, keep checking the listings.

WESTLAW/LEXIS SUMMER ACCESS

Both Lexis and Westlaw limit students’ access during the summer. However, access may be extended during the summer months for students who are: taking summer courses; working as research assistants for professors; conducting research for law review or moot court; or are involved in a non-profit externship/internship which is unpaid and/or school credit is received. To extend a Westlaw password please go to http://lawschool.westlaw.com/shared/marketinfodisplay.asp?code=M&id=322; LexisNexis student accounts switches to Summer Access on June 1. Access will be provided through Lexis Advance, http://www.lexisnexis.com/lawschool/login.aspx. Students must register their new Lexis Advance IDs to receive access. For Lexis access questions or login information, e-mail natasha.dasani@lexisnexis.com.

SHAVUOT

The Law Center will close at 4:00 p.m. on Saturday, May 26, and will remain closed Sunday-Monday, May 27-28, in observance of the Jewish holiday of Shavuot. Shavuot is the second of three major Jewish holidays with both agricultural and historical significance (the others are Passover and Sukkot). Shavuot, which means “weeks” (the holiday is also called “The Festival of Weeks”), refers to the timing of the celebration, exactly 7 weeks after Passover. Agriculturally, Shavuot commemorates the time when the first fruits were harvested and brought to the Temple, the central place of worship in ancient Jerusalem. The holiday also marks the anniversary of the defining moment in Jewish history, the giving of the Ten Commandments to Moses at Mount Sinai.
