NOTES

1) Qualifications for Admission to the Bar - In addition to the bar examination, there are character, fitness, and other qualifications for admission to the bar in every U.S. jurisdiction. Applicants are encouraged to determine the requirements for any jurisdiction in which they intend to seek admission by contacting the jurisdiction. Addresses for all relevant agencies are available through the National Conference of Bar Examiners.

2) Take great care when preparing the Application for Admission. Answer all questions fully and accurately. Include your name and LSAC account number on all documents accompanying the application.

3) Mail or transmit the application and supporting documents to:

   Touro Law Center
   Office of Admissions
   225 Eastview Drive
   Central Islip, NY 11722
   Telephone: (631) 761-7010
   Facsimile: (631) 761-7019
   E-mail: admissions@tourolaw.edu

If you have any questions concerning your application or the admissions process in general, please contact the Office of Admissions at (631) 761-7010. Applicants are encouraged to visit the campus and to observe a class; interested applicants should make arrangements through the Office of Admissions.

PERSONAL HISTORY

If you are unsure whether an incident in your past requires an affirmative response to any of the following questions, you are advised to contact the Admissions Office (631) 761-7010 to request clarification. However, you are advised to make full disclosure in this application, since you will be required to do so when you apply to take the bar examination and/or seek admission to practice. Please understand that the failure to candidly respond to a question is, almost without exception, a far more serious matter than the underlying event itself.

If you answer “yes” to any of the following questions, please provide a complete explanation on a separate sheet.

Have you ever, for any reason, been suspended from, placed on probation at, required to withdraw from, or been subject to any disciplinary action at any educational institution (above elementary school level), including law school? Address all prior and/or pending matters.

Are there currently or have there been any disciplinary charges against you? This includes but is not limited to any professional licensing matters.

Have you ever, either as an adult or juvenile, been cited, ticketed, arrested, taken into custody, charged with, indicted, convicted or tried for, or pleaded guilty to, the commission of any felony or misdemeanor or the violation of any law, except minor parking violations, or been the subject of any juvenile delinquency or youthful offender proceedings? All matters, including those dismissed or with no charges filed (after taken into custody) must be disclosed.

Have you ever, either as an adult or juvenile, been cited, ticketed, arrested, taken into custody, charged with, indicted, convicted or tried for, or pleaded guilty to, the commission of any felony or misdemeanor or the violation of any law, except minor parking violations, or been the subject of any juvenile delinquency or youthful offender proceedings? All matters, including those dismissed or with no charges filed (after taken into custody) must be disclosed.

Are there any criminal charges, other than minor parking violations, pending against you? Any pending charge involving alcohol or controlled substances must be disclosed.

Have you received a military discharge under other than honorable conditions?

Have there been any civil judgments filed against you?

Is there anything in your social media postings (past or present) that is inconsistent with the mission (www.touro.edu/about/our-mission/mission-statement/) or Code of Conduct (www.touro.edu/students/policies/code-of-conduct/) of the College or with that of the program in which you will be enrolled?

STATEMENT ON DIVERSITY (Optional)

Touro Law Center values diversity in its student body. Diversity can be measured in terms of many characteristics such as race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, disability, and sexual orientation. However, every individual may make a distinctive contribution by virtue of such factors as background, experience, interests, and geographic residence.

We invite you to describe briefly attributes of your character which you believe would enhance the diversity of the community at Touro Law Center. Please attach as a separate document, or use an electronic attachment.

PERSONAL STATEMENT (Required)

A Personal Statement is required. Since individuals and their interests and aspirations vary, the content of the statement is left to your discretion. You may take this opportunity to clarify questions contained in this application for admission, provide additional information that you feel should be considered in evaluating your application, or you may elect to write about another subject which addresses your decision to attend Touro Law Center. Please attach as a separate document, or use an electronic attachment.

SIGNATURE (Required)

By signing below, I certify that the statements made in this Application for Admission to Touro College Jacob D. Fuchsberg Law Center are complete, accurate, and are subject to the rules and regulations contained in the Touro Law Center Code of Conduct. I shall inform the Office of Admissions promptly if there is any change in the information provided. I understand that omission or misrepresentation of facts on this Application may be cause for denial of my admission or for dismissal after enrollment. I understand that action on this Application is within the sole discretion of the Committee on Admissions and that its decision is final. In addition, any false, misleading, or incomplete response may be grounds for referral to the Law School Admissions Council’s Subcommittee on Misconduct and Irregularities in the Admissions Process.
